

About the Diploma

a leading online teaching diploma, designed and delivered by Cardiff and Vale University College in England in cooperation with Dragonfly Training, endorsed by the TQUK, and accredited by Talal Abu Ghazaleh Global Digital University College, Jordan in cooperation with the MENA exclusive partners of the BTD; ISHRAQ Consultation and Development.

The Diploma is a L7 Diploma with a core base of global pedagogy aimed at impacting upon students' outcomes especially in the British Systems, by providing British, and global, best practice that have been proven (via evidence based research) to raise attainment, particularly in international based exams that have become all but essential in today's educational world. In addition; the diploma improves the performance and career path of the teachers.

Program Aims

1. The BTD central aim is to impact upon student outcomes by providing examples of British, and global, best practice that have been proven to raise attainment, particularly in international based exams that have become all but essential in today's educational world.
2. To enable practitioners to build confidence and master the classroom environment.
3. To help educational Institutions boost their academic reputations.
4. To provide practitioners with a qualification which may be used for the purposes of advanced standing, to boost career prospects, or simply to refresh and develop new knowledge.

Learning and Teaching Framework

The BTD is built around 12 modules. These modules focus on the major aspects related to delivering high-quality learning sessions.

The content is evidence-based and utilizes the most up-to-date research, as well as British and global best practice on what we know works best in educational settings.

The full BTD is achieved when all 12 twelve modules have been passed
