TAGI-UNI is the people's gateway to the world's best education, promoting global citizenship and individual responsibility. Under its mission "to make accredited educational programs accessible to everyone, everywhere", TAGI-UNI uses partnerships - comprised of a network of universities, non-government organizations, training institutions, and language schools - as its modus operandi to deliver comprehensive education to a global student body. Thus, digital education provided by international institutions compels individuals to understand their interdependence and their interconnected roles in the modern world.

With its vision of "world-class education as a human right", Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University seeks to democratize education through a system of channels to open students' dialogue with one another, therefore putting the quality of interaction in their hands. TAGI-UNI makes it possible for the transforming societies to embrace new concepts emerging from the ground up, given that accessibility to education is paramount for maximizing these societies' potential.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University provides boundless world-class higher education across the globe to learners who may be unable to afford the costs of travel. All programs offered are of the highest caliber and relevant to global job market needs.

‘Abu-Ghazaleh International University’ Opens Registration for the Academic Year 2022

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), announced that registration for the international academic programs (Bachelor and Master) for the academic year 2022 is now open.

For students who wish to enroll in one of the TAGI-UNI programs, registration is conducted through the University Admission and Registration Department at TAG.Global General Building in Shmeisani in Amman or electronically through TAGI-UNI website: www.tagiuni.com.

It is worth mentioning that the University offers a set of academic (Bachelor’s, Master’s and Higher Diploma) programs in a number of new disciplines such as Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Cybersecurity, Artificial Intelligence and Data Analytics, Digital Marketing and Human Resources Management.

HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder of TAGI-UNI, stressed that: “Learning today is based on innovation and creativity, as information and educational material are no longer available in books or at campuses only. It rather evolved into a new type of open education that is based on digitization and information technology, to which our students should be guided and directed to in this era.”

For her part, Executive Director of TAGI-UNI, Dr. Mushira Enezat, stated that TAGI-UNI is the only University that provides higher education online in the Arab region that aims at graduating a creative generation which is capable of keeping up with digital technology.

She added that the University focuses on the provision of a creative environment for research, experimentation and creativity to access scientific and research innovations in accordance with the best and latest methods of modern education.

‘Abu-Ghazaleh International University’ Opens New Branch in Qatar

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), has decided to open a new branch in Qatar in order to provide study opportunity for those wishing to enroll in one of its programs in Qatar and the neighboring countries.

On this occasion, HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, TAGI-UNI founder, stated that the University's expansion is due to the significant university role and efforts in keeping pace with the global advancements in the Technology Era and the Fourth Industrial Revolution, as well as in response to the challenges of distance learning.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh further pointed out that the University; in collaboration with a number of major universities specialized in humanitarian, social and technological education in the bachelor and master's programs, introduces the most important academic programs, and provides an incubator for students' technological innovations and inventions in order to achieve the goals of the Arab technological, sustainable and comprehensive development.

He also affirmed that the opening of TAGI-UNI new branch would be followed with the inauguration of new branches in different countries to simplify enrollment procedures for students from all Arab countries.

It is worth mentioning that the new branch in Qatar will be managed by the economic expert, Dr. Abdul Rahim Al Hour, in cooperation with the University's head office in Amman- Jordan.

The new TAGI-UNI Qatar branch will focus on the digital academic education, qualifying professional Arab cadres, developing the academic and training materials. It will also focus on organizing and holding workshops, training courses and specialized conferences in the digital academic field, in addition to cooperation in the fields of capacity-building, as well as training in Information Technology (IT) and digital technology skills.

For his part, Dr. Al Hour praised the TAGI-UNI role in supporting the students who wish to pursue their education remotely, pointing to the University's distinguished reputation and distinction regionally and internationally, considering that it was established years ago, at a time when the trend towards distance learning was so limited, in comparison with the situation now.

TAGI-UNI Executive Director, Dr. Mushira Enezat, stressed the importance of digital learning as one of the major factors in driving students' creativity and innovation, noting that the world is experiencing a rapid technological development in light of the Fourth Industrial Revolution which had prompted the establishment of a new branch in Qatar to keep pace with the rapid developments in the distance learning revolution.

It should be noted that Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI) is one of the academic institutions affiliate with TAG. Global that offers academic and professional programs to young people digitally.

The first-of-its-kind in the Arab world:

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh’ Graduates the 4th Batch of ‘Junior Digital Teacher’ Program

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Digital Platform for Youth has celebrated the graduation of the fourth batch of the first training program of its kind in the Arab region entitled: ‘Junior Digital Teacher’.

The program aims at creating a conscious, innovative, and creative generation by integrating modern digital tools into classroom learning at school. Accordingly, students would be trained to become assistants to their teachers in the face-to-face education, and at the same time, will be digitally empowered and technology-armed in distance learning. During the program, the 7-16 years old participants were integrated into groups to take advantage of their intellectual abilities based on the so-called "Peer Culture", which depends on acquiring information from students and sharing it with other students of the same age under the guidance of the supervising trainer.

The 30-hour program concluded with a graduation project presented by students who were awarded a certificate from Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Academy for Capacity Building (TAG-Academy).

Commenting on the event, Executive Director of the International Educational Programs at Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), Dr. Mushira Enezat, stated that the Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Digital Platform for Youth was established in line with the directives of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, TAG.Global founder and chairman, under the motto “God Created us to be Creative” to establish a platform that helps students become more proactive and creative.

Dr. Enezat also affirmed that the ‘Junior Digital Teacher’ training program is one of a series of programs that will be launched in the coming weeks in cooperation with a group of schools that seek to adopt digital innovation programs offered by Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International Digital University, which mainly focuses on offering quality digital learning in accordance with international standards.

For her part, the trainer of the program, Ms. Asmaa Abdulaziz, emphasized that the program effectively contributed to drawing the attention of the participants and their families to the importance of integrating technology with learning, as well as driving them towards innovation in delivering the curriculum by the students themselves. She further mentioned that the student would become a teacher and a learner at the same time which helps students to become self-dependent during distance-learning periods.

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh Incubator for Innovation’ Launches ‘Comprehensive Human Resources’ Training Program

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Incubator for Innovation (TAG.Incubator for Innovation at Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University-TAGI-UNI) has launched the “Comprehensive Human Resources” training program, in response to participants’ demand from various universities, government and private sector institutions. The program also aims to meet the needs of the labor market at the same time.

The program is specifically designed for university students and middle-level managers, in addition to human resource employees in both the public and private sectors. It also targets those working as supervisors in civil society organizations and institutions.

Executive Director of the International Educational Programs at Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), Dr. Mushira Enezat, explained that the training program is basically meant to effectively qualify and develop skills of human resources to face the problems organizations and their employees may face, and helps pursue strategies that contribute to avoiding any difficulties that may arise.

It is worth mentioning that the 25-hour training program, presented by HR Management Expert, Ms. Hadeel Murrar, covers various theoretical and practical aspects.

At the end of the course, participants will be awarded an accredited certification from Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Academy for Capacity Building (TAG-Academy).

‘Abu-Ghazaleh International University’ Participates in the 5th Session of Governance and Sustainable Development

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), has participated in the 5th session of the Governance and Sustainable Development 2022 conference that was held digitally -for the second time because of the Corona virus restrictions- by the Indonesia-based Bandar Lampung University, with the participation of high-ranking international universities.

The conference was attended by members of University of Peloponnese, Humboldt International University and a number of international universities, in addition to 500 students from the participating universities and other educational institutions around the world.

TAGI-UNI Executive Director of International Educational Programs, Dr.

Mushira Enezat, represented the University in the said Conference, where she presented a research paper on “Governance and Sustainable Development”, in which she stressed the importance of sustainability in the management field for the improvement of competitiveness, responsibility and community confidence.

Dr. Enezat outlined key challenges and opportunities in the areas of governance and sustainable development, highlighting different models of sustainable management identifying their elements and similarities.

She further called for expanding the scope of theoretical development to achieve best practices in corporate governance and to ensure sustainability.

It is worth mentioning that TAGI-UNI was the only participant from the Arab region in the Conference’s fifth session.
