Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University

TAGI-UNI is the people's gateway to the world's best education, promoting global citizenship and individual responsibility. Under its mission "to make accredited educational programs accessible to everyone, everywhere", TAGI-UNI uses partnerships - comprised of a network of universities, non-government organizations, training institutions, and language schools - as its modus operandi to deliver comprehensive education to a global student body. Thus, digital education provided by international institutions compels individuals to understand their interdependence and their interconnected roles in the modern world.

With its vision of "world-class education as a human right", Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University seeks to democratize education through a system of channels to open students' dialogue with one another, therefore putting the quality of interaction in their hands. TAGI-UNI makes it possible for the transforming societies to embrace new concepts emerging from the ground up, given that accessibility to education is paramount for maximizing these societies' potential.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University provides boundless world-class higher education across the globe to learners who may be unable to afford the costs of travel. All programs offered are of the highest caliber and relevant to global job market needs.

Abu-Ghazaleh Announces High-level Cooperation between TechWorks and TAG. Incubator for Innovation

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Incubator for Innovation (TAG. Incubator for Innovation) and TechWorks - one of the Crown Prince Foundation's initiatives - signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to cooperate in various fields including digital manufacturing and training, and exchanging consulting services related to technological devices, machines and equipment needed to manage innovation incubators.

The MoU was signed, in the presence of Foundation CEO, Dr. Tamam Mango, by TechWorks Managing Director, Eng. Ismail Hakki, and Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International Digital University (TAGI-UNI) Executive Director, Dr. Mushira Enezat.

Cooperation between the two parties aims at implementing digital training programs offered by TAG.Incubator for Innovation and the member firms of TAG.Global in partnership with TechWorks initiative.

Commenting on the signing event, HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of TAG. Global, expressed his pride in cooperating with the Crown Prince Foundation, represented by TechWorks, to establish a distinctive and unique model of partnerships, as well as to build a digital and creative generation armed with technological tools, knowledge and innovation.

Moreover, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh stressed the importance of creating an innovation incubator in every educational institution, pointing out the need of orienting education towards building a generation of digitally capable innovators to serve their nation.

For her part, Dr. Mango expressed her pride in cooperating with TAG.Global, saying: “This partnership significantly enhances our vision aimed to join forces with the private sector institutions so that we together focus our support on the youth in Jordan throughout the Kingdom.”

She stated that the Crown Prince Foundation pays special attention to technological sectors, most importantly the digital training programs, due to their positive impact on developing the skills and capacities of the youth, as well as promoting their competitiveness at all levels. For her part Dr. Enezat said that signing the agreement falls in line with the directives of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh in building a national model of excellence, and an appropriate environment for the young innovators and entrepreneurs in order to develop their interest and curiosity that drive the tech industry.

Eng. Haqqi, on the other hand, stressed the importance of such partnerships which stimulate creativity and contribute to exchanging technological and technical expertise. He added that the Foundation has been always keen on offering and expanding scope of opportunities to the youth in the Kingdom with the aim of integrating them in the process of development and creativity, pursuant to the Foundation’s approach in building and improving the skills of the Jordanian youth, and providing them with the opportunities that enable them to effectively play their role towards serving their nations and communities.

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh International University’ Participates in the 2021 ‘Women Economic Forum Caribbean’

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), took part in the 2021 Women Economic Forum Caribbean (WEF), represented by its Executive Director of International Educational Programs, Dr. Mushira Enezat, with a research paper entitled ‘Women in Leadership Positions and their Role in Digital Transformation in 2021’.

Dr. Enezat's is the only Jordanian woman to participate in the first edition of the Forum, where 45 women were selected from all over the world to discuss the role of women in leadership and their role in digital transformation and distance learning globally. Furthermore, Enezat gave a presentation on the Jordanian women's achievements, as well as the high positions they have served in. She also outlined the support they receive from various organizations in order to represent their societies at the local, Arab, and global levels and institutions, in addition to the mechanisms to give them equal services in all aspects of life, since they are the most affected individuals by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

She also stated that the digital empowerment of women was a primary objective after the COVID-19 crisis to effectively assist them in becoming self-reliant to adopt digital transformation in organizations they manage, and at the same time seeking to promote equal opportunities between men and women in all scientific and practical fields.

Enezat also expressed her appreciation to Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global) for the great role it plays in supporting women at work as an implementation to the vision and instructions of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of TAG. Global, in supporting women and fostering an environment of equality in the workplace based on his belief and confidence in their essential role at all levels and fields.

It is worth mentioning that the 2021 Women

Economic Forum Caribbean (WEF) in its first edition was held digitally, and attended by around 250 thousand participants from various countries around the world, in which Dr. Enezat was selected to be the Ambassador of the Forum as the first Jordanian Arab woman to hold this title.

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh International University’ Opens Registration for 2022 Winter Semester

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGIUNI), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG. Global), recently announced that digital registration for the winter semester of the academic year 2022 is open to a variety of professional and academic programs, in collaboration with the world major online universities.

TAGIUNI seeks to make accredited educational programs accessible to everyone, everywhere through a wide range of partnerships - comprised of a network of universities, non-government organizations, training institutions, and language schools, to offer comprehensive education for students from all over the world, where digital education provided by international institutions enables individuals to better understand their interconnected roles in the modern world.

Moreover, TAGIUNI offers first-class education worldwide to learners who may be unable to afford the costs of travel. Which makes it the best gateway for global education, promoting global citizenship and individual responsibility.

In conjunction with the opening of the 60th session of AIDSMO Executive Board

‘Abu-Ghazaleh Global’ and the Arab Industrial Development, Standardization & Mining Organization Sign Cooperation Agreement

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG. Global) and the Arab Industrial Development, Standardization & Mining Organization (AIDSMO) signed a cooperation agreement in industry and technology fields, at the opening of the 60th session of the AIDSMO Executive Board.

The agreement covers cooperation and coordination in technical support, expertise exchange, technical consulting and knowledge-sharing. It also aims at promoting innovation, creative and information technology as well as raising awareness in the areas of industry, standardization and mining.

At the opening of the 60th session, HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of TAG. Global, expressed his pride in the AIDSMO, praising its efforts in keeping pace with the rapid global transformation and the Fourth Industrial Revolution. He also commended the Organization's smart response to technology challenges, as well as, its constant pursuit to achieve the goals of the Arab technological, sustainable and comprehensive development.

For his part, Eng. Adel Al Saqer, AIDSMO director general, welcomed Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh and highly commended the role TAG.Global plays in supporting the Arab organizations. He pointed out that, since its establishment, AIDSMO has been always keen to give special attention to future industries that are based on science and knowledge as the cornerstone for industrial development.

Moreover, the two parties agreed on forming a joint working group to discuss means of exchanging experiences related to information and communication technology, e-solutions and digital transformation consulting and its application, in addition to organizing and holding specialized workshops and conferences.

The agreement also covers cooperation in intellectual property, in qualifying the Arab cadres and preparing training material for improving information technology skills, and in designing new programs to meet the needs and requirements of stakeholders.

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh Digital Platform’ Graduates the 3rd Batch of Junior Digital Broadcaster Program

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Digital Platform for Youth organized a graduation ceremony for the 3rd batch of participants in the Junior Digital Broadcaster program conducted for students of Al-Madar International Schools. On behalf of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of TAG.Global, CEO of Al-Madar International Schools, Dr. Mohammed Hasan Abzakh, attended the graduation ceremony.

The TAG Digital Platform was established to help students become more creative under the motto “God Created us to be Creative”, in line with the mission of Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh in enhancing digital culture among the emerging Arab generations, and in harmony with the Royal Vision in developing the skills of talented young people.

Accordingly, the Platform provides a number of programs that target students aged between 8-16 years old of both genders who have the passion for media work.

The Junior Digital Broadcaster program aims to instill in children the noble goals of the media profession with its rules and provisions that govern it to become more objective and professional to serve the public interest, and at the same time, conducting media related activities in accordance with the latest advancement in the information technology field in terms of producing, editing, and presentation.

It should be noted that the 25-hour training program was developed and designed by TAG. Global’s distinguished experts. It consists of theoretical and practical training and concludes with a graduation project presented by students to be awarded a certificate from Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Academy for Capacity Building (TAG-Academy).
